

South Australian Energy Hall of Fame - 2019

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The Australian Institute of Energy (South Australia Branch) (AIE) presents annual awards to recognise achievers and contributors to the South Australian energy sector. The awards are presented at the SA Energy Awards Dinner, this year to be held on Wednesday 17 July 2019 at the National Wine Centre in Adelaide. The highest honour that the AIE bestows in South Australia is induction into the SA Energy Hall of Fame.

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Induction into the AIE-SA 'Energy Hall of Fame' is the highest honour awarded by the AIE-SA Branch and recognises a person who has made an extraordinary contribution to the provision of energy or advancement of energy knowledge within the South Australian community.

The AIE-SA Committee is now calling for nomination of candidates to be considered for induction into the SA Energy Hall of Fame (see www.aie.org.au/hall-of-fame to see inductees).

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

The SA Energy Hall of Fame is awarded to a person who:

- Has made a widely recognised and substantial contribution to the provision of energy or energy knowledge that has been beneficial to the SA community; and
- Has been a positive role model as an energy professional by exemplifying the characteristics expected in professional practice (ethical behaviour, ongoing continuing professional development, holding an initial professional qualification, contributing to the profession, mentoring others).

ELIGIBILITY

In order to be eligible for induction into the SA Energy Hall of Fame the nominee must:

- Have resided or practiced in SA for a substantial period associated with their contribution to energy; and
- The person's contribution to the energy sector must be significantly associated with South Australia.

NOMINATION PROCESS

Members of the energy community are welcome to nominate candidates for this award who meet the above criteria. In making a nomination, please provide brief details setting out the basis for the nomination. Please include your contact details. No form-filling is required in order to nominate a person for this award.

A listing of SA Energy Hall of Fame members, including their citations, is available online here:
