

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN ENERGY PROJECT OF THE YEAR AWARD 2018

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

---

The Australian Institute of Energy (South Australia Branch) (AIE) presents this annual award for the most significant and successful energy-related project over the past 12 months.

Projects may include any professional discipline that has contributed to energy related outcomes such as research, policy, legal, commercial, engineering and construction etc.

AWARD ELIGIBILITY

In order to be eligible for the SA Energy Project of the Year Award, the project must:

- have demonstrably achieved its main objectives during the 12-month period from 1 January 2017 to 1 January 2018;
- have been completed in South Australia or apply technology and/or knowledge that was developed in South Australia; and
- the nomination be submitted and/or accepted by the organisation(s) responsible for the project.

AWARD JUDGING CRITERIA GUIDELINES

The following criteria should be viewed as criteria guidelines, developed by the AIE and its Award Judging Panel.

The Award Judging Panel retains the discretion to consider broader context/benefit in assessing nominations. As such, nominees are encouraged to address any broader benefits of the project, where relevant, to support their nomination.

Impact

- Contribution to the sustainable development and/or utilisation of Australia's energy resources.
- Contribution to long-term energy security, reliability and affordability.

- Benefit to the South Australian community, which includes energy outcomes as well as (a) jobs, (b) extent of local content/contribution and (c) adding to the skills base.

Innovation

- Originality, innovation and entrepreneurship:
  - Does the entry represent a clear "break" with previously established methods or processes?
  - Does the entry significantly simplify or improve something?
- The innovation is cost-effective and sustainable.
- The project's ability to shape a new standard or approach in the industry and the impact that the new approach could have.

Success

- The project was delivered safely, on time, on budget and with no adverse environmental incidents or impacts.
- The project is achieving/has achieved its stated aims.

TO NOMINATE FOR THE AWARD

Nominations are to be in the form of a written submission that must include:

- A (up to) 2,000 word statement that describes the project and how it meets the eligibility and judging criteria.
- Details of the organisations involved in the project.
- Contact details for at least 2 referees who can adequately discuss the nature and benefit of the project's contribution.

Nominations must be submitted by 5:00 pm (ACST) on 27 May 2018 using the application cover sheet (overleaf) to the Secretary, AIE SA Branch via email at adel@aie.org.au.

The judging panel may choose to shortlist projects and request additional information prior to selecting a winner.

The successful project will be announced at the 2018 AIE-SA Annual Awards Dinner, on 1 August 2018.
