

Membership Application Forms

Attached are application forms for the membership of the Australian Institute of Energy (AIE), including:

1. Individual member Form - covering grades of Fellow, Member, Associate and Graduate
2. Corporate (Company) Member and Representatives Form
3. Student Member Form

An information sheet with a detailed description of the membership grades and the current subscription rates is available on the AIE website at:

www.aie.org.au/membership

Additional Forms can also be down loaded from this site, as well as a brochure describing the AIE.

On-line applications will be available shortly from this web address.

Student and Graduate members receive a reduced subscription relative to the other individual membership grades.

New members are assigned to their nearest AIE Branch geographically. Members 35 years or under, are automatically registered as AIE Young Energy Professionals (YEPs). YEPs can apply for any grade of membership in AIE, including Students, Graduates, Members and Corporate Member Representatives.

Information for Membership Applicants:

- Please select and complete the appropriate Application Form (Individual, Corporate or Student).
- In the case of Individual member applicants, ensure you check the box for the Grade of membership you are applying for (Fellow, Member, Graduate or Associate) and whether it is a new application or Transfer to a new grade.
- Complete the 'Professional Experience in Energy' table, emphasising the 'Positions held', their level of responsibility and the '% of duties oriented to energy'.
- Supporting documents may be attached to assist in assessing your energy background and/or responsibility.
- On submission of an application, the applicant will be invoiced for the appropriate subscription which may be discounted depending on the stage of the financial year. Membership will not become effective until this subscription is paid.
- A copy of the Australian Institute of Energy Constitution and By-laws is available on the Institute's website.
- Applications for membership and membership upgrades are decided by the Board after review by the Membership Committee.

If you have any questions, please contact our National Secretariat at the address below.
