

AIE Luncheon Event: Shadow Energy Minister Dean Nalder

ENERGY | POLITICS | LIFE IN THE OPPOSITION

The AIE is pleased to have Dean Nalder, Shadow Treasurer and Shadow Minister for Finance; Energy, present at the April Luncheon. Dean will share his background on what led him into politics and his thoughts on the WA energy market including the opposition's views on electricity retail contestability, privatisation of energy assets, managing renewables, the overall gas market and a view on the economic outlook for WA and how this will affect the energy sector & the whole state.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Dean is the Shadow Treasurer and Shadow Minister for Finance; Energy. In the previous Parliament, he served as Minister for Transport, Finance and Agriculture.

Dean is proud to have represented the local community since his election to State Parliament in 2013 as the Member for Alfred Cove, and as the current Member for Bateman following the 2017 electoral boundary redistribution.

Raised on a farm in Wagin, Dean was educated at Wagin Primary School and Wesley College and gained a Bachelor of Business, Economics and Financial Management from Curtin University and a Graduate Diploma in Applied Finance and Investments from the Securities Institute of Australia.

Dean has worked at the highest level in the corporate world and spent 18 years at the ANZ Bank where he became a Senior Executive and was responsible for more than 1,000 employees and hundreds of millions of dollars in revenue and profit. After leaving the ANZ he was the State Commercial Manager for Australia Post for two years.

He is a Member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors, Fellow of the Financial Services Institute of Australasia, and has previously been a Council Member of Wesley College, including Deputy Chairman.
